Their Description

Earthwalkers is a western managed guesthouse with a great atmosphere. The restaurant, bar and garden area with swimming pool and hammocks, are great places to relax after a long exiting day exploring the Angkor temples.

The 21 rooms are comfortable and clean, with fan or aircondition. All have western standard private bathrooms, with hot water.

Earthwalkers offers a wealth of information and travel advise, and we are more than happy to arrange transport and tour bookings both for groups and individual travelers, in order to suit YOUR special requirements.

Contributing to the local community plays a central role within Earthwalkers' company values. We are, for example, happy to present Apsara dancing every second Sunday at 7.00 pm, performed by orphans.

Free pickup from anywhere in Siem Reap (the airport, bus station or boat terminal), and a free set of breakfast is included.

★★★★★ Very good

We stayed as a family (six) for a couple of nights. The hostel was great and the staff were so accommodating and helpful, offering the best advice freely. Great people in a great country.

★★★★★ The best hostel I have stayed in worldwide!

I have stayed in hostels all over the world and this one is easily the best. The Earthwalkers guest house also won the award for the best labor practices of any business in Cambodia. Henrik was running the place in spring of '07 when I came and I hope the same crew will be there when I return this winter. The rooms were clean, the food was awesome, and the crew were some of the nicest people I have ever met.

★★★★★ Good place

We stayed in the twin room (the one you see in the picture) and it was as exactly as described. The room is largish, with air-con, working hot shower. The private bathroom attached is a bit worn but relatively clean. Staff is friendly, bar is nice, and we booked a tonle sap tour with them. Yes, there are free bikes, but when we arranged to get them a day before we wanted to see the angkor wat at dawn, they were unavailable. However, they made it up to us the next day with available bikes.

★ The disaster that we face when we reach the guest house was the amount that have been agreed on the website doesn't tally with the amount shown in the guest house. They claimed that the room was without the air-conditioning and the room was not as clean as we expected. With the amount of the fees that we pay to earthwalker, we could get a better guest house with extra facilities such as the cable tv, fridge, air-conditioning, and a cleaner room. They advertise that the bicycle suppose to be free rental but the story was different when we are there. We feel cheated by the false information given on the website. Those who saw this opinion please be more careful in selecting your guest house because we spend half a day solving all this crap on the mistake done by them.

★★★★★ It doesn't get any better than this. And I mean it. I've stayed at everything from dorms to Raffles, but this place has got soul. And for 15 dollars... Man, it's amazing.

★★★★★ I had a great time in Siem Reap and Earthwalkers was the best. I can't believe the service and standards for such a reasonable price. The restaurant food was excellent and the atmosphere in the bar was fantastic. Well done to the Earthwalkers team.

★★★★★ Definitely the place to stay for a relaxed and friendly atmosphere. The staff are helpful and they organised an excellent tuk-tuk driver and guide to help us around the temples. Lovely, clean rooms. It was very, very hot when we were there, but excellent air-con!!!

★★★★★ I stayed in this guest house and had a wonderful time. The (free) dance performance by the kids from the orphanage was amazing. The staff were very helpful with local information, and the drinks were strong!! I would highly recommend this guest house to anyone.
